The fine print:

Tables will only be in the name of, and only occupied by, the registered dealer. The dealer that is registered may not sublet the table to another entity without prior written permission. AMVETS Post 101 reserves the right to reassign tables at its discretion. Dealers are expected to have tables staffed, with inventory on display until at least 3:30 PM. Requests for any earlier departure must be in writing and will be honored at the discretion of the AMVETS Post 101.

No dealer may knowingly exhibit or offer for sale any illegal coins, counterfeits, forgeries, unmarked copies, or other spurious merchandise. Insurance against loss of material is the responsibility of the dealer. Table holder shall be responsible for compliance with all federal, state and local laws, including the activities of persons operating under the name of the table holder.

The undersigned hereby agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, the VFW post 1370 and AMVETS Post 101, their respective officers, employees, subcontractors, committee members or volunteers, (the "Indemnified Parties") from and against any loss, damage, injury or claim asserted against any of the Indemnified Parties on account of any action or failure to act of the undersigned in connection with this event; and agrees to release the Indemnified Parties from responsibility for any loss, damage or injury whatsoever sustained, either directly or indirectly, by the undersigned in connection with this event; and agrees to abide by all conditions of this agreement
